

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
ROSS COUNTY, OHIO

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

2020 MAR 19 AM 10:47

FILED
ROSS COUNTY COMMON PLEAS
CLERK OF COURTS
BY J. WINTON
JOURNAL ENTRY

IN THE MATTER OF:

INTERMITTENT JAIL TIME DURING THE COVID-19 HEALTH CRISIS

In furtherance of the Courts recent attempt to reduce the Ross County Jail population during the COVID-19 Public Health Crisis, the Court orders effective immediately that:

- All Defendants sentenced to serve intermittent jail time by the undersigned shall have an additional six months to complete their sentence.
- The Ross County Jail shall not accept any Defendant attempting to complete their intermittent sentence until after July 1, 2020.

Until further ORDER of the Court.

ENTER: 3/19/2020

MICHAEL M. ATER, JUDGE

ENTER: 3/19/2020

MATTHEW S. SCHMIDT, JUDGE